NEWSLETTER 10

Good afternoon,

Happy New Year!

A great start to the new year with our lovely weather! 😊

There is an amber weather warning for Corby tomorrow and snow due between 10pm and 10am tomorrow. There is also rain forecast, so unsure how much snow will land.

The school will be open, but in the very unlikely event we were not open, you would be contacted through text and Dojo. It is my priority to keep the school open; it is your decision about whether you feel safe to travel. Fingers crossed, it will all be ok.

It is great for the children to experience the snow, so if your child has wellies, boots and appropriate clothing, they will be allowed to play outside (if the wind isn't too dangerous).

Young Voices

We have a gorgeous bunch of children taking part in the Young Voices concert in Birmingham on Tuesday 13th January. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs Mudd and Miss Moynagh for all their hard work helping the children get ready for it.

Thank-you for all the positive support and best wishes regarding my new role in September. Looking forward to it. 🐼

PARENT QUESTIONNAIRE

As we are starting a new year, it will be fantastic if you can share your views so that we can continuously try to improve your child's experiences at Studfall. See link below.

Thanks for your continued support and let's hope we only have some light snow.
